OFFICE OF THE ADDITIONAL DISTRICT MAGISTRATE, DHARWAR.

Notification, dated 21st February, 1961

Sub : Order under Section 43 (1) of the Bombay Police Act, 1951, regarding special measures to prevent epidemic diseases at the fair of Shri Raja Bag Sawar at Yamanur in Navalgund taluk.

Order

No. POL. SR 9779. Whereas it is reported by the District Health Officer, Dharwar under his letter No. Fair 889 dated 2nd February 1961, that the fair of Shri Raja Bag Sawar is to be held at Yamanur in Navalgund taluk from 4 3 1961 to 12 3 1961 ;

Whereas it appears to the Additional District Magistrate Dharwar that the fair referred to above will on account of the large body of persons likely to assemble during the period referred to above, probably may be visited by an out-break of the epidemic of Cholera :

And whereas it is considered necessary to take special measures to prevent the out-break of epidemic and for the protection of water supply, food and segregation of persons suffering from infectious diseases;

Now therefore, in exercise of the power, conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 43 of the Bombay Police Act, 1951, I, D. B. Hosangadi, B.A., Additional District Magistrate, Dharwar hereby prescribe the following regulations to be observed by the persons assembling at the fair of Shri Raja Bag Sawar at Yemnur during the period mentioned in para 1 above :-

1. That save in the case of a person in respect of whom a certificate has been produced from a Registered Medical Officer or an inoculator, duly authorised in that behalf that such person has been inoculated against Cholera by him within 6 months immediately preceeding the date of the commencement of the fair mentioned in para 1 above, every person attending the said fair or residing in the said fair area shall get himself or herself and those under his control or guardianship inoculated against Cholera.

2. The Public Health Department will divide water source into two divisions viz., one for drinking purpose and the other for bathing and washing purposes. No portion will be allowed for any purpose other than for which it is reserved.

3. No person will be allowed to dip his or her vessel into drinking water source. The water servers will serve drinking water to the pilgrims or the pilgrims should draw water with the buckets provided therefor the purpose.

4. No one shall attend calls of nature in any place within the area except in the place reserved for the purpose.

5. No rotten fruits or other articles of food and drink unfit for human consumption shall be offered for sale and such fruits or articles of food and drinks will be liable to be attached by the Public Health staff or the Police on duty.

6. All tea shops, hotels and eating houses shall be open to inspection by the staff of the public health department on duty at the fair and they are authorised to give instructions to the owners as regards cleanliness and other sanitary matters and these instructions shall immediately be carried out by the said owners;

7. All persons visiting the fair area are liable for medical inspection and any one found suffering from plague, small-pox, Cholera or any other infectious disease shall be segregated forthwith.

Any person disobeying the above order will be liable for prosecution under Section 139 of the Bombay Police Act, 1951, which is punishable with imprisonment upto 3 months or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or with both.

Given under my hand and seal this twenty-first day of February, 1961.
